ANNOUNCEMENTS
We are authorized to announce G. T. JOHNSON as a candidate for County Court Clerk, subject to the action of the Republican party.

A Covington special contains this bit of political information: That Richard Ernst, chairman of State Republican Campaign Committee, and otherwise leader of the party in Northern Kentucky, is no longer a secret in Campbell county. His friends are active in his behalf for the high office and are boozing him to succeed Senator McCreary, and pledges are being brought from prospective candidates for the State Legislature to vote for the Covington leader should they be successful at the coming election.

At a meeting held at Frankfort Thursday by unanimous concurrence of the Democratic nominees for State offices and the members of the Campaign and Advisory Committees it was decided to open the campaign this fall at Lexington on Saturday August 31st, or hardly two weeks after the Republican campaign has been started at Maysville. Lexington was first suggested by Judge S. W. Hager, the candidate for Governor, and was easily the choice of the other candidates who felt that his desire, as the head of the ticket, should be paramount to other considerations. Several suggested that it might be well to infuse the vigor of the opening of the fight in Western Kentucky, so as to arouse the big Democratic vote—the only trouble there—but the accessibility and convenience and the enthusiasm always manifested by the Democrats of Lexington and its vicinity on such occasions, easily convinced the candidates and other leaders that it is the right place. It is expected that the opening will be held in the day time, arrangements will be left to the local Democrats. Immediately following the opening Judge Hager will begin a speaking tour of the mountain section of the State, while Governor Beckham will go right to Western Kentucky speaking the following Monday at Paducah. Speaking will also be put on the stump in every county seat where there is court on that day.

Suit to be instituted by the Government against the International Harvester Company for alleged violation of the Sherman anti-trust act. The papers in the proposed action are being drawn at the Department of Justice in Washington. This Company was indicted at the last term of Circuit Court here.

ENDORSED BY THE COUNTY
"The most popular remedy in Otsego County, and the best friend of my family," writes Wm. M. Dietz, editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal, Gilbertsville, N. J. "Dr. King's New Discovery. It has proved to be an infallible cure for coughs and colds, making short work for the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in the house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for Lung and Throat diseases." Guaranteed by Chas C. Davis, druggist. 25¢ the money for it." By doing this he would become a deserter to that grand army of dead-heads who expect the newspapers to continually note the improvements they make, by giving them free puffs, and for which they never pay a cent. It is high time for all classes to learn that a newspaper is a business enterprise, the same as a dry goods store or a grocery, run for a living for its owner."

YOUNG man let us give you the benefit of our observation. We have noticed that at least nine tenths of the young men who have been before the court for misdemeanor are those who take no interest whatever in education, seldom read a newspaper, and are always ready to make fun of other young men who use correct language and try to be somebody. It comes natural to them to discourage the studious and ambitious young men of their acquaintance. Their minds run toward dirty stories, midnight sprees and bad company. This in a short time means trouble, a sheriff's invitation to attend court, and a fine or term in jail.

POLITICS AND POLITICIAN

Secretary Taft delivered an address at Columbus, O., Monday which is regarded as the opening gun of his presidential campaign. The largest part of his speech was devoted to the railway rate question and the trusts. He strongly endorsed the policies of President Roosevelt.

The rods of rancid rot daily printed in the big city papers about the vulgar rich, their sayings and doings; their comings and goings, what they eat and how they eat it; what they drink and how much of it; what they wear and how when and where they wear it; minute write-ups, with pictorial illustrations of every dud worn by brainless women, full description of every garment, including the embroidered and hemstitched clothes, prepared before-hand for the unborn brats—all their fulsome nauseous stuff, drooled out daily in the big papers—by the column and by the whole page—a sort of gross pandering to riches—servile worship of snobocracy; a putting of the forehead to the ground when the money moloch passes down the street, does more to stir up the devil in a man than all else combined. This sort of man worship may go all right in countries where one man is acknowledged to be better than another, but it will never go in this land of the free and the home of the brave; and the sooner the big papers let up on these daily flouting of money in the faces of decent people, the quicker all sorts of devilishness will cease to be a menace to our government.

If some day the newspaper man should print the contents of his waste basket there would probably be a riot. There would certainly be trouble in many homes, arrests in some direction, shot guns in others, trouble all around. But the patron never sees the waste basket. He only glances at the beautifully printed pages, complains if one letter in fifty is upside down, growls his disappointment if one name in five hundred has happened to go wrong, kicks because his communication, signed "Tax Payer," has been condensed into respectable English frowns because the editor didn't take his advice about publicly warning his neighbor against throwing more melon in the alley, and is generally disgruntled, not so much at what he fails to find. He knows his share of the waste basket, but if he could have one look at the contributions made to that receptacle by his neighbors and friends, he would thank God for the existence of a man with sufficient intelligence and courage not to print all he knows, and to temper even that which he does print.

SAYD a well known business man to us the other day: "It would not hurt you to occasionally mention our business in the paper. It would help to fill up you know." Yes, we might do it. We haven't the least idea on earth that it would hurt us, and it would, as he suggests, help to fill up. We might do all this, but at the same time, thank God, we do not have to do it unless we feel like it. It would not hurt him, neither, to come around and say: "Give me a column or a half column of space for an advertisement, and here is Judge W. R. Cress wife and baby spent Friday until Monday with friends and relatives here and near Level Green. The Judge has every reason to be proud of his success in Wayne's growing metropolis.

In our last issue we stated that Mrs. G. M. Ballard would not have to undergo an operation, which was incorrect as Mrs. Ballard was operated on last week and is doing nicely. We misunderstood Mr. Ballard and hence the mistake.

M. C. Williams, the druggist, is preparing to build a handsome residence on Gibson street, Gibson addition. Lloyd Huey is now engaged with the Indiana Refining Company, in charge of their shipping business for this point.—Somerset Republican.

Mesdames D. N. Williams and Cleo Brown returned from Somerset Wednesday. Mrs. Williams, who underwent an operation at Cincinnati about two months ago, looks decidedly better than when she left and says she feels altogether like a different person.

Dr. Joe Baugh who graduated from the Hospital College of Medicine, Louisville, last June, was here Wednesday making preparations to come here to locate, and has rented offices over J. T. Adam's store. He expects to open his office about September 1st. Dr. Baugh is a splendid young man in every particular, and his adaptability for the medical profession has long since been recognized by those who came in contact with him.

L. R. Hughes came up from Stanford Sunday to join Mrs. Hughes.

Miss Fanny Thompson, of near Preachersville is the guest of her cousins the Misses Thompson.

L. H. Davis and J. A. Oliver two of Livingston's best and most enterprising business men were here for several hours Tuesday.

Jack Adams has returned from a two weeks stay at Jamestown and will leave in two weeks for Colorado, where he will spend the winter.

Walter G. Smith, cashier of Summersville Bank, spent Friday until Monday here. He has resigned at Summersville to take effect Sept. 1st, at which time he will take charge of a bank at Sherburne.

W. T. Davis, the splendid and efficient foreman of this office, is taking his vacation this week and to try to act the part of editor, printer and "devil" all combined, is a pretty hard place to fill, or at least we are finding it such.

Roy Brittan, the painter, fell from the second story of the College building last Saturday and fortunately escaped with a severe jolting up and a slightly sprained wrist. The wind blew his ladder from under him.

A WARNING TO TRESPASSERS: I will prosecute all persons trespassing on my lands without regard to age or sex.

8-16-41. JNO. W. MILLER.

The chances are that Mt. Vernon will soon have a brass band. We have the boys who have the music in them and all that is necessary is a little effort in them to get it out.

The board of town trustees have ordered side walks built on several of the streets. Those who have to build should inspect the one just completed by G. T. Johnson in front of his property, get prices and if at all possible follow his splendid example, of making the best. It looks better, it will last better and is better to build the concrete walks.

We call attention to the announcement of G. T. Johnson as candidate for County Court Clerk, which appears in this issue. While it is sometime yet, more than two years before the final election, yet Mr. Johnson believes in doing things in time, and has therefore decided to make his announcement at this early date, that his friends and those disposed to assist him in the race might know his intentions. We will give a more complete write-up at a later date.

Dr. Joe Baugh who graduated from the Hospital College of Medicine, Louisville, last June, was here Wednesday making preparations to come here to locate, and has rented offices over J. T. Adam's store. He expects to open his office about September 1st. THE DESERTED VILLAGE.

AUGUST 20, 1907.

(By G. Albert R.)
Mt. Vernon! Oh, Mt. Vernon!
Rockcastle's county seat;

The pride of all Kentucky,
But—today you're incomplete.

What if the sun does shine to-day?

What if we hear a warbled lay?

What if the bee hums merrily,

And butterflies are blithe and gay?

The sun's rays pour forth naught but heat.

And twittering birds, whom do you greet?

The bee does bring a painful sting

And flow'rets lose their perfume sweet.

The passing train sound but a knell,

For—she is gone, My Blue Grass Belle.

Dedicated to the absent one, Miss R—W— of Mt. Vernon, Ky.,

without permission, but with great respect by the author.
